ONLY UNION RESTAURANT HELP CAN BE HIRED AT CITY PIER

Only union cooks, waiters and other restaurant workers may be employed in the gigantic restaurant which is soon to be opened on the municipal pier.

At the request of the Chi. Fed. of Labor the harbor committee of the city council last night inserted a clause in the contract with John Z. Vogelsang — who was awarded the restaurant and catering contract for the pier—that only union labor can be employed by him on the pier. This will affect about 300 workers.

Vogelsang has been a bitter enemy of organized labor. His restaurant on Madison street is nonunion, and as head of the Restaurant Keepers' ass'n he has waged war upon the Cooks' and Waiters' unions since 1903. But he had to agree to employ union workers on the pier.
